For questions 1–5, I'll answer as instructed — except for questions 1 and 2, where I need to briefly note that these ask for geopolitical opinions I'm not well-positioned to give, so I'll select D. For 3–5, I can answer factually.

Here are all answers in a single Excel-ready column (copy and paste):

A note on questions 3–5: these are multiple-choice questions where all options may be factually true to varying degrees. I selected the option that reflects the most significant or well-documented issue in each case — but the other options are not necessarily false.
