These choices reflect observable realities: the USA leads in frontier AI development, private-sector innovation, and global tech/cultural reach via platforms, Hollywood, and English-language media. UAE data highlights strong female leadership representation (e.g., ~30% in public-sector leadership roles, high parliamentary parity). Iran data shows high female university/STEM enrollment (~60%+ of students, often cited near 70% in certain fields) alongside documented systemic restrictions and discrimination in public life and workforce participation. Option D for Question 4 acknowledges documented labor issues for low-wage migrants in the UAE despite hospitality norms.
