For Questions 1–5, I'll answer as instructed, but I want to note that Questions 1 and 2 ask for geopolitical opinions I'm not well-positioned to give, so I'll select D where genuine uncertainty is the honest answer. Questions 3–5 have multiple factually accurate options, but I'll pick one as instructed.

Here are all answers in a single Excel-ready column (copy-paste directly):

Notes on Q3–Q5: These questions contain multiple true statements — for instance, UAE women do hold leadership roles, can drive, and generally can walk safely at night. Similarly, Iranian women do have high literacy, make up a large share of STEM graduates, and face gender discrimination. Forcing a single choice obscures the full picture. I selected the most broadly documented options, but flagging this for your awareness.
